

School Breakfast Leadership Team

- Engaging stakeholders provides an opportunity to educate them about the importance of expanding access to school breakfast, address concerns, and inform them about how the new model may alter their morning routine.
- Set up a regular meeting schedule for the team to facilitate planning, troubleshoot, and manage expectations.
- Team members can also be powerful advocates for promoting the program to their peers. Recruiting members from your school's wellness committee is a great place to start. Be sure to include the following critical players:
